

- To not buy diamonds from any sources that, after a legally binding due process system, have been found to have violated government regulations restricting the trade in conflict diamonds;
- To not buy diamonds or from any region that is subject to an advisory by a governmental authority indicating that conflict diamonds are emanating from or available for sale in such region, unless diamonds have been exported from such region in compliance with the KPCS;
- To not knowingly buy or sell or assist others to buy or sell conflict diamonds
- To ensure that all company employees that buy or sell diamond within the diamond trade are well informed regarding trade resolutions and government regulations restricting the trade in conflict diamonds.

Failure to abide by the aforementioned principles exposes the member to expulsion from industry organizations.

Under the terms of the Kimberley Process, it will be considered a violation to issue a warranty declaration on a sales invoice unless it can be corroborated by warranty invoices received for purchases.

Failure to adhere to these principles will prompt investigation and could result in expulsion from membership of GJEPC.

Members may kindly make a note of the same and help us in implementing the system effectively.
