Featured in the latest issue of Travel Pulse magazine the article draws the reader's attention to the destinations to the north of Miami Beach, highlighting the glamorous history of Four Seasons Hotel & Residences at The Surf Club, Miami. Formerly a private club that saw the likes of international personalities such as Winston Churchill, the story beautifully describes how much of the elegance and originality have been "faithfully replicated". Some of the most notable mentions are the must-visit Le Sirenuse at The Surf Club, popular for its fine Italian Mediterranean cuisine, the former ballroom, with the Champagne Bar in the front of the restaurant and, the long outdoor terrace facing the beach.
