

The Gem & Jewellery Export Promotion Council Southern Region

Presents

Dear All Members in South:

The GJEPC – South Future Leadership Summit “The Power of Next” is a platform for recognizing and rewarding South India’s Gem & Jewellery Industry’s NEXT GENERATION CEOS and most promising young talent in industry. This initiative is meant to encourage, identify and nurture promising future business leaders from the Gem & Jewellery Industry of South India Inc and also to encourage the next generation to enter into this industry.

The GJEPC – SFLS program is for Industry’s Next Generation CEOs between the age group of 21 and 35 years, who are not only at the cusp of entering the leadership cadre within their organizations or family businesses waiting at the CORRIDOR OF POWER, but also those who are looking to improve their leadership quotient.

The Summit which will be a one day program, administers a combination of assessment tools, online as well as on-ground, and culminates in face-to-face interviews with leaders from the corporate world.

Why Participate?

- Networking with the country's best young leadership talent
- Self-discovery of your own leadership strengths and limitations on globally-validated and industry-endorsed standards
- Meeting with International CEOs / Renowned speakers to focus on export market, overseas policies & opportunities, concept of international retailing, international packaging, advertising and international marketing.
- The ultimate high of featuring in the coveted The GJEPC – South Future Leadership Summit ranking, thus gaining recognition as one of South India's top CEO/Leader

We are planning to invite prominent & effective speakers from different walks of life from India along with others from overseas. The program will be to talk about the leadership and focus on the future of the gem & jewellery industry.

There will be a delegate fee for the participants who then will become the first group of CEO/Industry's Next Generation from your family who will be forming the founder members of this "Power of Next" group who are then will eligible for the awards/appreciation/programs which are being created for in the future at South. The participants should be either CEO/Managing Partner/Managing Director/Director/Chairman/President/Vice President/Proprietor etc (should be holding management & decision making position) or fresher from the family who will be joining the business.
