

IIJS 2007 Slated For August 30 – Sep 3, 2007
IIJS to be a bi-annual event from the year 2008

Following the stupendous success of the India International Jewellery Show (IIJS) 2006, the event next year has been slated for August 30th – Sept 3rd, 2007 at the now familiar NSE Complex in Goregaon, Mumbai. The India International Jewellery Show (IIJS) organized by the Gem and Jewellery Export Promotion Council (GJEPC) has now become widely recognized as one of the biggest jewellery shows in Asia. The ranking of the show is amongst the top five B2B gem and jewellery trade fairs in the world as it offers various niche platforms to its exhibitors and participants to showcase their unique and magnificent creations.

Taking off from the previous year, IIJS 2007 will offer various knowledge platforms through its Seminars as well as networking, trading, marketing and business opportunities to all participants. Visitors and participants would also find a wide range of jewellery from couture to prêt.

IIJS 2007 too will witness the GJEPC continue their special initiatives like the Spectrum Seminar Series, Gold Expressions Collection and the much anticipated annual Solitaire Design Awards. In their continuous endeavor to make the IIJS a hotbed of opportunities for the Indian and global gems & jewellery sector, GJEPC promises a mega event in the coming year as well.

Mr. Sanjay Kothari, Chairman Gem and Jewellery Export Promotion Council commented “IIJS 2006 was a very well organised Show and has elevated the image of Indian Gem & Jewellery Industry. We expect to take a step further while organising IIJS 2007 and ensure that both the exhibitors and visitors are pleased with the Show. This year our main focus is to provide greater value to all participants. I invite all, to witness the mega show in 2007 that showcases the best of the Indian Gem & Jewellery Industry all under this one roof”

The Gem & Jewellery Export Promotion Council has taken a definitive step to cash on the growing popularity of IIJS, by deciding to organize IIJS 2 in February 2008. IIJS will now be a bi-annual show and will open more avenues to view the best that India has to offer. Council is working towards this and will soon announce the dates of the same.
