

Seminar on Export Promotion of Gems and Jewellery Products from Northern Region

By GJEPC, New Delhi

2nd May, 2018

An interactive seminar on promotion of export of gems and jewellery segment from Northern Region of the country was organised by Regional Office-Northern Region on 2nd May, 2018.

Key Highlights of the Seminar

- At the outset, Shri Anil Talwar, President, Chandigarh Saraf Association welcomed the members present in the seminar and expressed his gratitude to the Council for organizing this seminar in Chandigarh.
- Shri Ashok Seth, Regional Chairman-North, GJEPC addressed the gathering and informed them about the industry and the Council. He informed the members about the various initiatives taken by the Council like Setting up of Common Facility Centres, Parichay Cards, Medical Insurance facility for gems and jewellery workers etc.
- Thereafter, Shri K.K,Duggal, Director-Policy made a detailed presentation on the Indian gems and jewellery industry, its current status, about GJEPC, their roles and functions in promoting this labour intrinsic sector internationally.
- Shri Pankaj Verma, Indian Institute of Gems and Jewellery – New Delhi gave a detailed presentation on the activities of IIGJ and various courses being run by them to impart skill training in the field of gems and jewellery segment.

The seminar was attended by 127 members.

Glimpses of the Seminar on Export Promotion of Gems and Jewellery Products

GJEPC in association with the Chandigarh Sarafa Association conducts a seminar on exports

GJEPC, in association with the Chandigarh Sarafa Association, conducted a seminar on promotion of export of gems and jewellery at Chandigarh in the month of May. The seminar was conducted at the regional office of GJEPC and was attended by 125 jewellers. Many industry leaders and prominent jewellers from the fraternity spoke at the seminar and shared knowledge about various aspects of the Council and the industry. Starting with a presentation on programmes at IIGJ Delhi by IIGJ training in-charge, the seminar saw Ashok Seth, Regional

Chairman-North, GJEPC, speaking about various schemes like CFC, Parichay Cards and medical insurance for workers etc. KK Duggal, Director-Policy, GJEPC, also spoke of the benefits of being a GJEPC member and discussed the G&J industry. Anil Talwar, President of Chandigarh Sarafa Association, was in appreciation of the efforts taken by GJEPC for organising a seminar at Chandigarh. Praveer Chaubey, Assistant Director, BIS and Suraj Chauhan, governing body member, Chandigarh Sarafa Association were present at the seminar. ■